Period-wise teaching plan

Period	Focus	Teacher activity	Student activity
1	Warm-up + setting	Let's begin: name animal stories; guess from the picture. Read the opening — monkey, island, rock, delicious fruits; sketch bank→rock→island on the board. Teach: delicious, unique.	Answer Let's begin; oral Activity 1 (a–e); note new words.
2	The plan; suspicion	Read the crocodile-and-wife plan and the monkey's growing suspicion ('the rock has become so large'). Teach: escaped, flash, clutches, trick.	Activity 2 (fill from box), Activity 4 (T/F); discuss why the monkey grew suspicious.
3	The trick + escape	Read the test ('Hello, Rock!'), the crocodile's reply, and the escape (eyes-shut observation, open-mouth trick, leap to safety). Teach: impatient, realized, observed, suggestion.	Activity 3 (match meanings), Activity 5 (complete from text), Activity 6 (answer questions); role-play the escape.
4	Grammar: contractions + prepositions	Teach contracted forms (wasn't, didn't, you're, I'll, she's...) from the highlighted words; then prepositions (at/on/in/to/off).	Activity 7 (first-letter words), Activity 9 (match short/full forms), Activity 10 & 11 (prepositions).

Period	Focus	Teacher activity	Student activity
5	Subject/predicate + writing	Revise subject and predicate (subject can come at the start, middle or end). Guide Activity 13 — write an eight-sentence story from the fox-in-the-well hints and give it a title. Recite 'The Crocodile' (Lewis Carroll).	Activity 8 (opposites), Activity 12 (subject/predicate), Activity 13 (short story); attempt the StudyMatic 10-question quiz.

Board summary (write-up for the class)

From the Jataka Tales. A monkey on the riverbank crosses bank → rock → island daily for sweet delicious fruits, where he is in no danger. A crocodile and his wife plan to catch him; the wife wants his sweet flesh, so the crocodile lies still on the rock, pretending to be the rock. The monkey notices the rock looks too large, suspects a trick, and tests it by greeting the 'rock' — the crocodile foolishly replies. The monkey, who had observed that the crocodile's eyes shut whenever its mouth opens, asks it to open wide; then leaps onto its head and jumps to the safe bank. Moral: cleverness and alertness beat size and strength; greed leads to loss.
