Board summary (write-up for the class)

A class of 25 goes by bus from Chandannagar to the Bandel Church with their history teacher (their first outing). Only Mita had been before; the teacher keeps the surprise and notes that we visit places for fun and for learning. The church — one of the oldest in West Bengal — is a memorial of the Portuguese settlement. Timeline: ~1571 Portuguese use Bandel as a port; Akbar permits a town in Hooghly; 1579 they build the port; Augustinian monks from Goa build the church in 1599. Destroyed in the Mughal siege of Hooghly under Shah Jahan; ~1000 Christians taken to Agra fort, made to stand before ferocious elephants. One elephant carried Father Joan da Cruz to the emperor and knelt → Shah Jahan freed them, funded rebuilding and donated 777 bighas of land in 1633. Inside: Prayer Hall, ship's mast, cemetery, statue of Mother Mary, wall paintings of Christ, a huge four-faced clock.
