Learning objectives

- Students retell the story of the Taj Mahal in correct order.
- Students recall key facts: Khurram/Shah Jahan, Arjumand Banu Begum/Mumtaz Mahal, 1612, 1628, 22 years, 22,000 workers.
- Students explain what a mausoleum is and why the Taj Mahal was built.
- Students use Word Trove words (glimpse, beads, emperor, court, mourn, beloved, grave, magnificent) in sentences.
- Students identify adjectives, change verbs to the past form, and use prepositions of place/time/method.

Materials

- Butterfly textbook (pages 45–53); the Taj Mahal picture (p.45) and the Shah Jahan portrait (p.46).
- A picture/postcard of the Taj Mahal and a map showing Agra and the river Yamuna.
- A few small objects to demonstrate prepositions (a book and a box: in/on/under).
- StudyMatic chapter page for notes and the instant quiz: studymatic.in → WBBPE → Class V → English → Lesson 4.

Period-wise teaching plan

| Period | Focus                         | Teacher activity                                                                                                                                                                                      | Student activity                                                                                                         |
|--------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1      | Warm-up + the task            | Show the Taj Mahal picture (Let's begin): What do you see? What is its colour? Set up the frame: Tarun's homework and his grandfather. Read up to the start of the story. Teach: glimpse, beads.      | Answer Let's begin questions; predict what the grandfather will say.                                                     |
| 2      | Reading 1: Khurram & Arjumand | Read the Khurram–Meena Bazaar–Arjumand Banu Begum part; 1612 marriage; becomes Shah Jahan in 1628; she becomes Mumtaz Mahal. Build a name-pair chart on the board. Teach: emperor, court.             | Silent reading; oral Activity 1 (a–b) and Activity 3(a) (describing words); note the name pairs.                         |
| 3      | Reading 2: the mausoleum      | Read the mourning, the promise, the building of the mausoleum (22 years, 22,000 workers, white marble, river Yamuna); one of the seven wonders. Teach: mourn, beloved, grave, magnificent, mausoleum. | Activity 2 (jumbled words) and Activity 1 (c–g); discuss why it is called 'Memory in Marble'.                            |
| 4      | Grammar: adjectives & verbs   | Teach adjectives (beautiful, naughty) describing nouns; then present→past verb forms (tell→told, catch→caught, build→built, go→went). Use the board table.                                            | Activity 3(a)/3(b) (adjectives), Activity 4 (verb forms); make sentences with the adjectives honest, poor, narrow, true. |

| Period | Focus                           | Teacher activity                                                                                                                                                                                           | Student activity                                                                                                             |
|--------|---------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5      | Grammar: prepositions + writing | Teach prepositions of place/time/method with real objects (in/on/under the box; during class; for you; of a monkey). Guide Activity 7/8 paragraph writing; mention Activity 9 (route map, as in Lesson 2). | Activity 5 (prepositions), Activity 6 (articles), Activity 7 or 8 (five sentences); attempt the StudyMatic 10-question quiz. |

Board summary (write-up for the class)

Tarun (class V) must write a paragraph on the Taj Mahal; his retired-teacher grandfather tells the story. Prince Khurram (son of Jehangir, grandson of Akbar the Great) saw a beautiful girl, Arjumand Banu Begum (Persian noble family), at the Meena Bazaar and married her in 1612. As emperor in 1628 he became Shah Jahan ('the brightest crown of the world'); she was renamed Mumtaz Mahal. On her death he mourned two years and built her mausoleum (a building to house the dead) beside the river Yamuna in Agra — 22 years, 22,000 workers, white marble — the Taj Mahal, one of the seven wonders of the world.

Word Trove (teach with sentences)

| Word        | Meaning                                      |
|-------------|----------------------------------------------|
| glimpse     | a quick look                                 |
| beads       | glass/stone pieces strung to make a necklace |
| emperor     | the ruler of an empire                       |
| court       | the place from where a king governs          |
| mourn       | show sadness                                 |
| beloved     | a person who is dearly loved                 |
| grave       | a hole dug to bury a dead body               |
| magnificent | wonderful                                    |
| mausoleum   | a building built to house the dead           |
